ADMISSION POSSIBLE AmeriCorps VISTA & AmeriCorps State Positions

What are AmeriCorps VISTA & AmeriCorps State?

VISTA began in the 1960s and stands for Volunteers In Service To America. VISTA members help build capacity in organizations and assist them in becoming stronger and better at what they do as a community organization. Admission Possible's VISTAs develop professional skill sets in communications and development that are highly valued in the nonprofit community.

AmeriCorps State was created in 1993. AmeriCorps State joined VISTA and both (along with other programs) reside under the large "AmeriCorps" national service umbrella. Members provide direct program service.

What is the relationship between Admission Possible and AmeriCorps?

Both AmeriCorps VISTA and AmeriCorps State are a part of the same national service organization (AmeriCorps) where individuals serve in community organizations on various issues: education, housing, technology, health industry, and others. Because Admission Possible receives federal AmeriCorps funding (through a grant process) to implement the program, the organization is considered an AmeriCorps program.
